SO WHAT.....

How does this information have the potential to inform your work?

How does this information align with that you are doing in your own work?

With whom does this information need to be shared in your sphere of influence?

ALIGNMENT JIGSAW:

- Explore your specific Learning Forward Standard with your new learning team
- Using the other two sets of standards/practices, identify areas of alignment
- Share your thinking with your home group
- Debrief and clarify

SELF-REFLECTION

What are some key insights or understanding I have as a result of my experience today?

How/with whom can I share my new insights?

Who are my potential supports in using this information?

What specific steps will I taken to ensure implementation of these strategies/routines in my school or work site?
