ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this Corporation as provided in the articles of Incorporation is FLORIDA ASSOCIATION FOR STAFF DEVELOPMENT (FASD), INC. (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 170(c) (2) (3), 2055(a) (2), and 2522(a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Solely for the above purposes, the Corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon not-for-profit, corporations, including, but without limitation thereon, to receive gifts, devises, bequests and contributions in any form, and to use, apply, invest and reinvest the principal for income there from or distribute the same for the above purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on:

- a) By an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986 as an organization described in Section 501 (c) (3) of such Code, and/or
- b) By an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c) (2), 2055(a) (2), or 2522(a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

The Florida Association for Staff Development, Inc. is committed to professional growth of school related personnel, the driving force for improving schools to effect significant improvement in student achievement and school experiences for all students in Florida.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. Qualifications. Membership shall be open to all individuals over 18 years of age who are interested in the vision, mission and purposes of this Corporation as stated in the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation and in these Bylaws. Membership shall be open, regardless of race, sex, or creed, to persons who work or have an interest in educational staff development.

Section 2. Admission. An individual shall be admitted to membership upon payment of the current annual dues. A member shall continue as a member as long as qualifications are met and prescribed dues are paid. A qualified individual who pays the prescribed dues ninety days or less prior to the end of the fiscal year will be admitted to membership to the end of the next following fiscal year.

Section 3. Removal for Cause. If continued membership of any person is believed to be contrary to the interests, vision, mission, purposes or accepted ethical standards of the educational profession, and hence of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall appoint a special committee and delegate to it the conduct of investigations and hearings. Before final action is taken to terminate membership, the member shall be given opportunity to present a defense. An individual shall be removed as a member upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then admitted and attending any meeting of the Members, so long as a quorum is present or upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Officers and Directors then admitted and attending any meeting of the Board of Directors, so long as a quorum is present.

Section 4. Reinstatement. The person may reapply for membership at any subsequent time.

ARTICLE IV

Meetings of Members

Section 1. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meeting of Members shall be held within a period of three months before or after the end of the fiscal year of the Corporation at such date, time and place as may be fixed by the Board of Directors, or by an Officer of the Corporation authorized by the Board to act for it in such matter and as stated in the notice of the meeting. Special meetings of Members may be called by the President, or, in case of the President's absence, death, or disability, by the Secretary, by the Directors by action at a meeting, or by a majority of the Directors acting without a meeting.

Section 2. Notices of Meetings. Written or electronic notice of each Annual Meeting of Members or special meeting stating the date, time and place thereof shall be given by the President or designee. Each Member should receive notice of the meeting at least thirty (30) days in advance.

Section 3. Voting. For purposes of any vote of Members, each Member in attendance shall have one (1) vote.

Section 4. Quorum. At any meeting of Members a majority of the Members in attendance shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business to be considered at such meeting, provided that no action required by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws to be authorized or taken by a designated proportion or number of Members may be authorized or taken by a lesser proportion or number.

Section 5. Action Without a Meeting. Any action which might be taken at any meeting of the members may be taken without such meeting by electronic poll. 5. Provide all necessary documentation of the accounts and financial transactions of the Corporation to the Audit Committee on request.
6. Be bonded during the term of office. Such bond shall be paid by the Corporation.

Section 2. Duties of Committees. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, create an Executive Committee of the Board and other committees. The Board of Directors may delegate to any such committee any of the authority of the Board, other than to take certain actions described in Article XI. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, shall act only in the intervals between meetings of the Board, and shall be subject to the control and direction of the Board; provided, however, that no third party shall be adversely affected by relying upon any act by any such committee within the authority delegated to it. Each such committee shall act by not less than a majority of the authorized number of its members. Functions of committees and committee chairs stated below may be further defined by the Board of Directors establishing guidelines and job responsibilities.

Section 3. Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall be chaired by the President-Elect. The Committee shall annually review the financial records of the Corporation and shall make a report to the membership during the Spring Conference for the preceding fiscal year.

Section 4. Publications Committee. The Publications Committee shall coordinate the publishing of the corporation newsletter and other corporation publications. The committee shall assist in the development of public relations documents, such as flyers, announcements and position papers.

Section 5. Florida Association for Staff Development Leadership Conference Planning Committee.

The Florida Association for Staff Development Leadership Conference (FASDLC) Planning Committee shall plan and conduct an annual conference for the state of Florida. The Committee will nominate the chairperson(s) to serve for the succeeding year(s). The chairperson(s) shall have completed at least two (2) years of active participation as a member of the Planning Committee. If not already elected as Director, any person appointed as one of the chairpersons of the FASDLC planning committee shall become a Director by virtue of their FASDLC chairperson office for the duration of their appointment. The Chairpersons shall solicit members with strong consideration given to representation from the Department of Education, district professional development departments, and post-secondary institutions to serve on the FASDLC Planning Committee. Representatives from small, medium, and large districts should be considered, in addition to all geographical areas of the state.

The committee shall prepare a budget and collect registration and fees sufficient to pay expenses of the conference. The Planning Committee shall develop the conference action plan. The chairperson(s) shall select and utilize a steering committee, secure input from past Planning Committee Chairs, schedule and conduct steering and Planning Committee meetings, and assume all responsibilities for ensuring that the annual Leadership Conference is successful.

Section 6. Legislative Committee. The Legislative Committee shall be responsible for monitoring and initiating legislation that promotes effective staff development programs. The Committee shall also provide information to the membership concerning proposed legislation affecting staff development.

Section 7. Nominations Committee. The Nominations Committee shall elect its own chair, include the immediate Past-President, and shall be advised by the President-Elect. The Committee should consist of at least five (5) members including one Professional Development Director, one postsecondary institutional representative, and one teacher leader currently serving on a professional development council or in another leadership position related to professional development. At least two members who shall not be on the Board of Directors shall be elected by the membership during the annual election. The other four (4) members shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the election.

The Committee shall prepare and make available nominating forms to the membership for the purpose of suggesting nominees for the Corporation's Officers and Directors, and other elected persons stipulated in the Bylaws. The forms shall state requirements, provided in Article 5, Section 3 Nominations. The Committee shall solicit nominations from all members at least ninety (90) days prior to the Annual Meeting of Members. After the call for nominations, the ballot will be closed for further nominations in order to give the Nomination Committee time to review each candidate for eligibility (see Article V, Section 2 of bylaws). Only those who meet director eligibility criteria will be considered for placement on the ballot.

Before the ballot is printed, the Committee shall contact each eligible nominee to be listed on the site to request an indication of his/her willingness and desire to be submitted to the membership as a candidate. Prior to being placed as a candidate on the Slate of Candidates, members of the Nominations Committee and members of the Election Committee shall have replacement members appointed by the President. The Nominations Committee shall present to the Board of Directors, a slate nominating candidates for each elective office and each vacancy on the Board of Directors at least sixty (60) days prior to the election. The Slate must be adopted by a majority vote of approval by the Board of Directors before it can be distributed to the membership.

The nominating form and the elections ballot may be a part of the Corporation Publication provided the word "Ballot" shall appear prominently on the ballot's face. The slate shall be distributed or communicated to the membership in electronic form at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Meeting of Members.

Section 8. Election Committee. The Election Committee, consisting of at least three members including the chair, shall be appointed by the President at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the election. The Committee shall serve as tellers and shall conduct all elections in a manner prescribed by the Board of Directors.

All ballots shall be returned to the Chair of the Election Committee prior to or during the Annual Meeting of Members. The Elections Committee Chair shall hold the ballots fully sealed until they are to be tabulated by the Election Committee. Once tabulated, the Election Committee shall hand the official tabulation and the ballots to the Secretary. The President shall announce election results to the membership.

Candidates, to be elected, must receive a plurality of the votes cast. Ballots shall be kept by the Secretary for a period of thirty (30) days following the election and then destroyed.

Section 9. Membership Committee. The Membership Committee, consisting of at least five (5) members, with at least one from each region of the state, shall be appointed by the President at its first meeting following the election. The Committee, in cooperation with the Secretary, shall maintain a current list of active members. The Committee shall assist in the registration of new members and shall provide membership applications on request. The Committee shall notify membership of yearly membership dues and shall promote the welcome and orientation of new members.

Section 10. Other Committees. The President shall appoint other committees as deemed necessary.

ARTICLE VII

Fiscal Year and Membership Year

The fiscal year and membership year of the Corporation shall end on September 30, or on such other date as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments

Section 1. Proposing Amendments. Amendments to the Bylaws of the Corporation may be proposed in two ways, as follows:

A. The Board of Directors or any member of the Corporation may present the proposed amendment in one general meeting of the Corporation with the request that it may be voted upon at the next scheduled general business meeting.

B. Any member of the Corporation may present the proposed amendment in writing to a meeting of the Board of Directors. If the Board deems the need to be sufficiently pressing, it may present the proposed amendment for vote at the next general meeting of the Corporation provided this proposed amendment has been sent in writing to the membership at least 30 days prior to the meeting.

Section 2. Adoption. Upon proper notice the Bylaws may be recommended to be amended, altered, or rescinded by a favorable two-thirds vote of those members of the Corporation present and voting at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose. Adopted amendments shall take effect immediately after being filed in a timely manner with the registered agent. The Secretary of the Corporation shall record the filing date in the official Corporation minutes.

ARTICLE IX

Affiliation

Section 1. Affiliation Process. The Corporation may affiliate with organizations with purposes similar to the objectives of the FLORIDA ASSOCIATION FOR STAFF DEVELOPMENT, INC. upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and a majority vote of members present at a regular meeting of the members so long as such affiliation does not cause the Corporation to lose any existing tax-exempt status.

Section 2. Delegates. The Board of Directors shall designate the official delegate or delegates to established activities of such affiliated organizations.

Section 3. Funding of Delegates. The Board of Directors may authorize payment of all or partial expenses of the delegate or delegates to established activities of such affiliated organizations.

ARTICLE X

Indemnification

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, Officer, or employee of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, trustee, officer, or employee of another corporation (whether non-profit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provision of the Articles of Incorporation or under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE XI

Dissolution of Corporation and Distribution of Assets

Section 1. Dissolution. No part of the net income, revenue, and grants of the Corporation shall insure to the benefit of any member, Officer, or any private individual (except that the reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered in connection with one or more of its purposes), and no member, Officer or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any part of the assets of the Corporation. In its dissolution or liquidation, the assets and the records for the Corporation, after payment of debts and obligations, shall be transferred to an organization with federal tax exemption for charitable and educational uses and purposes similar to those of the Corporation or to a state or local government, for public purposes. The Exempt organization shall be designated by the final Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Distribution of Assets. The affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors at any annual meeting of Directors or special meeting of Directors shall be required to adopt or approve the distribution of the Corporation. The notice of the meeting, at which any such action, is to be considered shall set forth the subject of the action or actions to be approved.

ARTICLE XII

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Record of Directors. The Secretary of the Corporation shall keep or cause to be kept a book, which may be included in and be a part of the book containing the minutes of meetings of the Directors, in which shall be written in ink or typed the names of all Directors, together with the last known address of each Director. There shall also be stated therein the date upon which each Director became such, and upon termination of any Directorship for any cause, the facts relating thereto shall be recorded in said book, together with the date of such termination. It shall be the duty of every Director, upon becoming such Director, forthwith to furnish to the Secretary of the Corporation, for inclusion in such record, his or her then address and likewise promptly to report to the Secretary for inclusion in such record any change in any such address.

Section 2. Rules of Meetings. On all questions of parliamentary procedure, the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Corporation meetings, except in such cases where the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws take precedence.
